FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 28, 2015

Breonna Krafft Awarded $5,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Nampa, ID—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Breonna Krafft of Boise, Idaho, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y Fellow, Krafft will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $5,000 to Krafft and the 39 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Krafft is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University in State College and Boise State University in Idaho and is currently a master's student in the clinical counseling program at Northwest Nazarene University in Nampa, Idaho. With suicide, homelessness and substance abuse rates all disproportionately high for the LGBTQ+ population, Krafft feels very passionately about working with them when she graduates. Krafft is excited about the financial assistance that the fellowship will provide but is also eager to utilize the fellowship to help her develop her voice as an advocate and instrument of change.

The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in September 2015. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org.

About the NBCC Foundation

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling. Currently, there are more than 55,000 National Certified Counselors in the United States and more than 50 countries. The Foundation's mission is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.
