Elyse E. Kusse Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Brockport, NY—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Elyse E. Kusse, of Penfield, NY, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC Fellow, Kusse will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $11,000 to Kusse and the other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Kusse is a graduate of Quinnipiac University, in Hamden, Connecticut, and is currently a master's student in the school counseling program at the State University of New York at Brockport. She looks forward to using her education to bring about change with community leaders, partners, investors and educators. She hopes to use this fellowship opportunity to help facilitate the difficult conversations about what is not working for young people and what can be done to have a greater impact.

The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-AC application period in September 2015. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org.

ABOUT THE NBCC FOUNDATION

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling. Currently, there are more than 55,000 National Certified Counselors in the United States and more than 50 countries. The Foundation's mission is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.
