Latoya Haynes-Thoby Awarded $5,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

University Park, PA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Latoya Haynes-Thoby of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y Fellow, Haynes-Thoby will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $5,000 to Haynes-Thoby and the 39 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Haynes-Thoby is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University in State College and is currently a master's student in the clinical mental health in schools and communities program at Pennsylvania State University in University Park. Haynes-Thoby plans to begin doctoral studies at Pennsylvania State University in August 2015, while continuing to provide counseling services to the community. She looks forward to seeking opportunities to provide counseling services to students and transition-age youth. This fellowship will allow her to prepare herself to provide optimal and current services to her communities.

The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in September 2015. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org.
