Marisol Salgado Awarded $5,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Huntsville, TX—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Marisol Salgado of Houston, Texas, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y Fellow, Salgado will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $5,000 to Salgado and the 39 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Salgado is both a student and graduate of Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas, where she is pursuing a master's degree in clinical mental health counseling. Salgado has an immense passion to serve the Latino community, specifically adolescents and young adults. As a young bilingual Latina, she believes she has a lot to offer an underserved minority community. Aside from offering counseling services, she strongly believes that we must educate this community on the importance of seeking mental health services. Her goal after graduation is to work within the community, educating this population on mental health. She would also like to offer workshops targeted at adolescents and young adults for the prevention of domestic violence.

The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in September 2015. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org.
