Matthew Carbonelli Receives Military Scholarship From the NBCC Foundation

Milwaukee, WI— The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded a $5,000 2015 NBCC Foundation military scholarship to Matthew Carbonelli, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The military scholarship is awarded to service members, veterans and their spouses who are pursuing a counseling education and commit to serving fellow military personnel, veterans and families upon graduation.

The mission of the NBCC Foundation is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change. The military scholarship was created in 2009 to increase access to counselors for military personnel, veterans and families suffering from a shortage of available mental health professionals. Thirty-five students from across the country applied for the five 2015 military scholarships.

As a military scholarship recipient, Carbonelli will receive $5,000 to support his counseling education and recognize his commitment to the underserved. A graduate of Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, Carbonelli is currently a master's student in the clinical mental health counseling program at Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He plans to serve the veteran population after he graduates.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded five $5,000 rural scholarships to increase the number of counselors serving rural areas. The Foundation plans to continue offering scholarships to increase the number of counselors in the areas where they are needed most and will open the next application period in September 2015.
