Kristian E. Robinson Awarded $8,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Alexandria, VA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Kristian E. Robinson of Alexandria, Virginia, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y Fellow, Robinson will receive funding and training to support his education and facilitate his service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $8,000 education awards to Robinson and the 29 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Robinson is a graduate of the University of Virginia, in Charlottesville, and is currently pursuing a master's in the clinical mental health counseling program at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Upon graduation, Robinson intends to work with minority students on college campuses, focusing his clinical experience on working with racial minorities and members of the LGBTQ+ populations as they make the transition into their college experience and face the trials and tribulations of the university setting. Earning this fellowship will allow Robinson to attend counseling conferences to further develop his counselor identity, learn population-specific interventions/techniques, and engage in relevant research projects.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 34 master's-level fellowships of up to $11,000 through the MFP-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in fall 2018. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.

ABOUT THE NBCC FOUNDATION

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling. Currently, there are more than 64,000 board-certified counselors in the United States and more than 50 countries. The Foundation's mission is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.
