NBCC Foundation Awards 2017 Scholarship to Dr. Amy S. Thul-Sigler

Bellefonte, PA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2017 Center for Credentialing & Education (CCE) professional development awards to Dr. Amy S. Thul-Sigler, of Bellefonte, Pennsylvania. The goal of this scholarship program is to advance the professional identity and development of CCE credential holders. Dr. Thul-Sigler will receive $500 to advance her professional identity and development.

Dr. Thul-Sigler is employed by The Pennsylvania State University within the Health Policy and Administration Department at University Park campus. She is the Associate Director for Professional Development and teaches both residential and online undergraduate courses. Dr. Thul-Sigler's passion is helping students of all ages with their career trajectory, which prompted her to obtain the GCDF certification. Her goal is to continue researching how values influence a person's career development.

The Center for Credentialing & Education (CCE), a platinum sponsor of the Foundation, provides the funding for this award. More information about CCE credentials is available at www.cce-global.org.

About the NBCC Foundation

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling. Currently, there are more than 64,000 National Certified Counselors (NCCs) in the United States and more than 50 countries. The Foundation's mission is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.
