Lauren Fortune Awarded $5,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Harrisonburg, VA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Lauren Fortune of Fredericksburg, Virginia, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y Fellow, Fortune will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $5,000 to Fortune and the 39 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Fortune is both a student and graduate of James Madison University in Harrisonburg, Virginia, where she is pursuing a master's degree in psychology and an educational specialist degree in clinical mental health counseling. Fortune plans to work with minorities and underserved populations upon graduation and has a special interest in working with those who have been through a traumatic experience such as sexual assault. This fellowship will allow Fortune to continue her education to learn how to better serve these populations and will provide invaluable experiences and opportunities to network with colleagues.

The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in September 2015. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org.

About the NBCC Foundation

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling. Currently, there are more than 55,000 National Certified Counselors in the United States and more than 50 countries. The Foundation's mission is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.
