NBCC Foundation Awards 2018 Scholarship to Heather C. Robertson

Port Jefferson, NY—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2018 NBCC Foundation Global Career Development Facilitator (GCDF) scholarships to Heather C. Robertson, of Port Jefferson, New York. The goal of the GCDF scholarship program is to increase the number of available counselors providing quality career guidance and facilitation. In doing so, the GCDF scholarship program plays an important role in the Foundation's mission to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change. Dr. Robertson will receive up to $1,000 to cover the costs of an approved GCDF training.

Dr. Robertson works part-time as the Leadership & Training Coordinator, as well as a Career Consultant, for Career and Employment Options Inc. (CEO). CEO provides career transition services to students and adults with disabilities through local school districts and state vocational rehabilitation contracts. Being awarded the GCDF scholarship allows Dr. Robertson to earn the Global Career Development Facilitator credential, which demonstrates excellence in career development services. As a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (CRC), Dr. Robinson will utilize her knowledge gained from the GCDF curriculum to provide timely and exceptional services to the clients she serves.

For more information or to make a donation, visit nbccf.org. The Center for Credentialing & Education, (CCE), a platinum sponsor of the Foundation, provided the grant funding for this award. More information about the GCDF and other CCE credentials is available at cce-global.org.
