NBCC Foundation Awards 2018 Scholarship to Sherrionda Crawford

Auburn, AL—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2018 NBCC Foundation Approved Clinical Supervisor (ACS) training awards to Sherrionda Crawford, of Auburn, Alabama. The goal of this scholarship program is to increase the number of available Approved Clinical Supervisors. Dr. Crawford will receive $500 to support her attainment of the ACS credential.

Dr. Crawford is a professor of school and clinical mental health counseling in the Division of Counseling, Rehabilitation & Interpreter Training at Troy University in Phenix City, Alabama. She is a National Certified Counselor (NCC), and is credentialed as a Licensed Professional Counselor Supervisor (LPC-S) in both Georgia and Alabama, and as a Certified School Counselor in the state of Alabama. Prior to becoming a professor at Troy, she provided valuable counseling services to children and adults in both clinical and school counseling settings. Dr. Crawford actively volunteers for the NBCC Foundation as a scholarship reviewer and mentor. Her research interests include trends in school counseling to include interpersonal violence and suicide prevention, as well as skill acquisition for counselors-in-training. The ACS award will allow her to attend valuable training aimed at facilitating ethical and effective practice for professional counselors seeking licensure or certification.
