

Global Career Development Facilitator (GCDF) – International

Note: Requirements listed below apply to the 2022 application cycle. Dates and other eligibility requirements are subject to change for the 2023 application cycle.

The goal of this scholarship program is to increase the number of available professional counselors providing quality career development services. In doing so, the GCDF scholarship program plays an important role in the NBCC Foundation's mission to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.

Four international scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each are available.

Eligibility requirements include the following:

- Must either hold an active GCDF credential in good standing and be enrolled in an advanced education program in counseling or be a student currently enrolled in both a GCDF training program and a post-bachelor's counseling program, as appropriate to their country.
- Must commit to providing career counseling services for two years.

CCE provides the funding for these awards, which the NBCC Foundation administers on CCE's behalf.
