

Apply for a Counseling Scholarship or Training Award!

The NBCC Foundation is pleased to offer over 60 scholarships and training awards for counseling students committed to serving rural and military populations and for professionals seeking additional credentials and continuing education opportunities. The 2022 application period for the NBCC Foundation Scholarship Program and Center for Credentialing & Education awards is open through July 31, 2022.

The application deadline is July 31, 2022.

Award amounts range from $500 to $8,000 and include awards in the following categories:

- five master's scholarships for students with military experience
- five master's scholarships for students from rural areas
- one doctoral scholarship for a counseling student with research focused on testing, assessment, or both
- two scholarships for international students holding or currently pursuing the Global Career Development Facilitator credential
- six scholarships for domestic students currently pursuing the Global Career Development Facilitator credential
- 45 awards to assist professionals with obtaining or maintaining credentials from the Center for Credentialing & Education, including: Board Certified Coach, Board Certified-TeleMental Health Provider, and CCE Approved Clinical Supervisor

For more information on eligibility requirements for each award or to apply, visit:
nbccf.org/programs/scholarships

The professional development and training awards are made possible by funding from the Center for Credentialing & Education.

NBCC Foundation | 3 Terrace Way, Greensboro, NC 27403 | nbccf.org | foundation@nbcc.org

