Elizabeth Solis Awarded $8,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Pawtucket, RI—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Elizabeth Solis of Pawtucket, Rhode Island, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y Fellow, Solis will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $8,000 education awards to Solis and the 29 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Solis is a graduate of Springfield College, in Massachusetts, and of Roger Williams University, in Bristol, Rhode Island, and is currently pursuing a master's in the clinical mental health counseling program at Rhode Island College, in Providence. Upon obtaining her clinical mental health license, Solis plans to serve the community, specifically the urban youth as a mental health counselor/advocate. Her plan is to eventually become self-employed while working with today's youth. Solis will be serving the Spanish-speaking community while continuously gaining knowledge and professional growth within the field of mental health.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 34 master's-level fellowships of up to $11,000 through the MFP-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in fall 2018. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.

ABOUT THE NBCC FOUNDATION

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling.
