Jenna D. Willis Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Hatteras, NC—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Jenna D. Willis, of Hatteras, North Carolina, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC Fellow, Willis will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute up to $11,000 to Willis and the 33 other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Willis is a graduate of The University of North Carolina at Wilmington, and is currently a master's student in the clinical mental health counseling program at Appalachian State University, in Boone, North Carolina. Upon graduation, Willis plans to work with people who have experiences with trauma and addiction. She hopes to help bridge the gap between mental health services and underserved populations, such as those living in rural areas and ethnic minorities. Earning this fellowship will give Willis the opportunity to gain more training and learn to provide better counseling services to those from diverse backgrounds.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-AC application period in fall 2018. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.
