Matthew A. Wallace Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Harrisburg, PA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Matthew A. Wallace, of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC Fellow, Wallace will receive funding and training to support his education and facilitate his addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute up to $11,000 to Wallace and the 33 other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Wallace is a graduate of Clarion University of Pennsylvania, and is currently a master's student in the clinical mental health counseling program at Troy University, in Tampa, Florida. Upon graduation, Wallace will focus on working with minority youths and their families who have histories of trauma and substance abuse. He would also like to work with all individuals who are in need of mental health treatment. This fellowship will provide Wallace with the opportunity to attend counselor trainings and conferences to improve his counseling competency as well as his understanding of evidence-based treatment interventions to ensure effective and ethical treatment of the individuals he will serve.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-AC application period in fall 2018. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.
