Paulette R. Eason-Williams Awarded $20,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Chicago, IL—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Paulette R. Eason-Williams, of Chicago, Illinois, for the National Board for Certified Counselors Minority Fellowship Program (NBCC MFP). As an NBCC MFP Fellow, Eason-Williams will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations.

The NBCC MFP is made possible by a grant first awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in August 2012. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to strengthen the infrastructure that engages diverse individuals in counseling and increases the number of professional counselors providing effective, culturally competent services to underserved populations.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $20,000 to Eason-Williams and the 22 other doctoral counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Eason-Williams is a graduate of the University of Illinois at Chicago, Adler University, in Chicago, Illinois, and Chicago State University, in Illinois. Eason-Williams is currently a doctoral student in the counselor education and supervision program at Governors State University, in University Park, Illinois. This fellowship will help Eason-Williams address African-American health disparities by researching the underlying causes. She will also explore the impact that slavery, racism, and discrimination have on the current functioning of African-Americans and, with community assistance, develop plans to improve outcomes for this population.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y) and 34 master's-level fellowships of up to $11,000 through the MFP-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP application period in fall 2018. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows.

ABOUT THE NBCC FOUNDATION

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling.
